STATE PLAN UNDER TITLE XIX OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT

State: Idaho

VARIATIONS FROM THE BASIC PERSONAL NEEDS ALLOWANCE

The following individuals are entitled to additional personal needs allowances, as applicable:

Persons with earned income. The personal needs allowance is increased by $200 or the amount of their earned income, whichever is less. These individuals need a greater personal needs allowance to offset their costs incurred in earning income.

Persons with taxes mandatorily withheld from unearned income for income tax purposes before the individual receives the income. These individuals need a greater personal needs allowance to offset their mandatory income taxes.

Persons with a court-ordered guardian. The personal needs allowance is increased by guardianship fees not to exceed 10% of the monthly benefit handled by the guardian, or $25, whichever is less. Where the guardian and the trustee are the same individual, the total deduction for guardian and trust fees must not exceed $25. The individuals need a greater personal needs allowance to offset their guardian fees.

Persons with a trust. The personal needs allowance is increased by trust fees, not to exceed $25 paid to the trustee for administering the individual's trust. These individuals need a greater personal needs allowance to offset their trust fees.

Blind or disabled employed persons with impairment-related work expenses. Impairment-related work expenses are purchased or rented items and services, purchased or rented to perform work. The items must be needed because of the participant's impairment. The actual monthly expense of the impairment-related items is deducted. Expenses must not be averaged. These individuals need a greater personal needs allowance to offset their impairment-related work expenses.

Income garnished for child support. Income garnished for child support if not already deductible from income under §1924(d)(1) of the Social Security Act for children living with the community spouse; under 42 CFR 435.725(c)(3), and 435.832(c)(3) for children living in the individual's home with no community spouse living in the home; and under 42 CFR 435.726(c)(3) and 435.735(c)(3) for children of individuals receiving home and community-based services furnished under a waiver.
